AGENTS. W. CHANE, 436 Montg'y st., San Francisco wm ofEDLING. Bellionville g. STARR. Hamilton

A Two-Minutes' Sermon to Young Ladies—caged birds of beautiful plumage, but sickly looks—pale pets of the parior, who vegetate in unhealthy atmosphere, like the potato germinating in a dark cellar, why do you not go out into the open air and warm sunshine, and add luster to your eyes, bloom to your cheeks, elasticity to your steps, and vigor to your frames? Take excercise; run up hill on a wager, and down again for fun; roam the fields, climb the fences, cap the ditches, wade the brooks, and, after a day of exhilerating exercise and anrestrained exercise and unrestrained ibety, go home with an appetite acquired by healthy enjoyment. The beautiful and blooming young lady, rosy-cheeked and bright-eyed—who can darn a stocking, mend their own frock, command a regiment of pots and kettles, and be a lady when required, is a girl that young regiment of pots and kettles, and be a lady when required, is a girl that young men are in quest of for a wife. But your samp, wasp-waisted, doll-dressed, consumption-mortgaged, music-nurdering, novel-devouring daughters of fashion and idleness, you are no more fit for matrimeny than a pullet is to look after a trool of fourteen chickens. The truth a my dear girls, you want less fashionable restraint and more liberty of action; more kitchen and less parlor; more leg exercise and less sofa; more pudding and ess piano; more frankness and less mock modesty. Loosen your waist strings, and breathe pure atmosphere, and become something as good and beautiful as nature designed.—[San Francisco News Letter.
